A Purbeck Odyssey

Sponsored walk
Saturday 13th June

Leukaemia Busters funded scientists aim to develop safer and more effective treatments for the 20% of children who currently have incurable leukaemia. It is very much hoped that this will eventually lead to a cure for those children who desperately need our help.

Saving Young Lives Through Research

The purpose of 2015: A Purbeck Odyssey, is to invite walkers to raise as much sponsorship money as they can for funding research that explores the use of antibodies to selectively kill leukaemia cells.

The more money you raise the more you will help speed up our life saving research.

By popular demand we are delighted to announce Purbeck Odyssey for 2015. This year we offer a series of organised walks not only along some of Dorset's dramatic coastline but inland across some of the county's most breathtaking countryside. Bill Bryson himself walked the same well-trodden path along the Purbeck Ridge that the Whale Walk follows.

Why not discover for yourself some of Dorset's delightful treasures and visit the castle ruins at Corfe, which also provides an historical backdrop for this event. One of the other major attractions in the area is the steam railway which runs between the seaside town of Swanage and Corfe and is conveniently sited near the Norden Park & Ride (just north of Corfe Castle). A trip on the Swanage Steam Railway is also included in the price of the Purbeck Odyssey Treasure Trail, the Whale Walk and the Dolphin Walk.

There is a walk to suit everybody, from a family treasure trail around Corfe Village to the adventurous 26-mile Marathon Challenge walk. Participate as an individual, a family, a group of friends or as competing teams. We can promise you a memorable and unique experience and a chance to raise money to help fund research into improved treatments for children with currently incurable leukaemia.
