Rules & Conditions

- These events are open to all who have paid their entry fees.
  - All Entry Fee cheques must be made payable to Green Events Ltd and a stamped addressed envelope must be enclosed if a receipt is required.
  - All participants must abide by the Country Code.
  - All participants must be properly equipped to deal with inclement mountain weather and it is recommended that walkers especially carry a compass together with OS map 147 or 187.
  - All participants must abide by any instructions given by marshals or safety personnel.
  - Any participant who drops out MUST report to an official to prevent unnecessary and costly searches being instituted.
  - Whilst making every attempt to ensure you enjoy the events, the organisers are not liable for accident, theft or damage.

Disclaimer

Green Events Ltd

Green Events Ltd, and other event organisers, accept no responsibility and reserve the right to change or amend any event due to any unforeseen circumstances.

Personal accident Insurance is NOT provided by the Organisers. It is incumbent upon participants to provide their own insurance at their own discretion.

The Organisers do not accept liability for any accident, damage, theft injury or illness to entrants, spectators, walkers, or any other person, vehicle or property whatsoever.

To conform with Government Regulations, events are open to persons aged 16 or over. Persons aged under 18 on the day must be accompanied on the event by a parent or legal guardian (whose signature is required on the relevant entry form).

Every effort will be made by the organisers to make these safe and enjoyable events.
