

MILTON KEYNES BOUNDARY WALK

The Milton Keynes Boundary Walk is approximately 60 miles long and uses existing footpaths. It does not have its own waymarks. The originator was Christopher Meredith and it was developed in conjunction with the Milton Keynes Borough Council, local groups of the Long Distance Walkers Association and Ramblers Association and with the help of local landowners. The original format was a leaflet showing the route in map form, with numbered points showing very brief descriptions. This leaflet was never updated and is no longer available.

I decided to keep the Walk alive by putting it into the form of this detailed written route description, which I hope makes it easy to follow. I have kept the numbered points from the original leaflet, in case it is ever updated and reprinted. Where numbers are missing it means that section has had to be changed from the original route, due to legal diversions. Many areas of the walk have changed considerably since the walk was first published and no doubt many more changes will be taking place due to the expansion plans for Milton Keynes. This means that the OS map may not always be up to date. Should you come across any problems or changes on route I would appreciate it if you would let me know, to enable me to keep the Walk up to date. I can be contacted by e.mail on andrewsian44@gmail.com

Maps

Sections of the Milton Keynes Boundary Walk are shown on the following maps.

Ordnance Survey Explorer 192, 207 and 208.

Ordnance Survey Landranger 152, 153 and 165.

The Oak Leaf symbol has been added to existing waymark and finger posts to indicate the route.

Notes

The Section from the Car Park at Stony Stratford to the Iron Trunk Aqueduct is all on solid paths, but it is on the River Ouse flood plain and is liable to flooding. The River Tove between the Grand Union Canal and the Hanslope Circular Ride is also liable to flooding.

Cross the minor road/public footpath and continue on, signposted Iron Trunk Aqueduct/Old Wolverton, with wooden fence on the right. This is still the Ouse Valley Park. Cross the footbridge and go through the gate. Continue with the River on the left. Go through the gate/cattle grid and continue beside the River towards the Iron Trunk Aqueduct ahead. Cross the bridge and follow the path up the slope towards the Iron Trunk Aqueduct. Walk through the tunnel under the Grand Union Canal and turn right up the stairs to the Canal.

7. At the Canal turn right to cross the Iron Trunk Aqueduct over the River Great Ouse. You now enter Northamptonshire. Continue along the towpath. The village of Yardley Gobion is on the left. After you pass under Bridge No.59 the church at Grafton Regis is ahead on the left.

10. Pass under the next bridge, No.58, and turn immediately right, up beside the bridge and then left along the field edge, with the hedge on the left. Go through the gate in the corner and continue ahead across the footbridge over the River Tove. This area is prone to flooding. Cross the next field and footbridge, then head diagonally right (80 degrees) to cross a metal railed footbridge to the right of the hedge. Go through the kissing gate and turn left up the edge of the field. Cross the stile and footbridge and continue along the left field edge. Cross the stile and go through the gate.

12. Turn left along the road past The Barn (formerly New Farm) and then turn right through the metal gate on to the public footpath. Head for the archway under the railway. Go through the metal gate, the archway and then the metal gate on the left. (The gate has now gone and been replaced by the railway fencing. The farm gate no longer opens as the wooden post is obstructing it. Consequently the only way is to climb over the farm gate GR SP778479). Continue ahead along the left edge of the field. Cross the stile in the corner beside the metal gate, and bear right (90°) to the gate in the hedge.

13. Cross the stile to the right of the metal gate and then another one. Head upfield (150°) to the left of the lone tree to cross the stile. Turn left along the track and at the field ahead bear right, with the ditch and hedge on the right. This becomes a green lane. At the end pass through the gap to the left of the metal gate. Long Street is to the right.

14. At the main road turn left. After approximately 150 yards turn right on to the public footpath. Follow the right field edge with the ditch and hedge on the right. Go through the gap in the field corner, cross footbridge and turn right. The noise you have been hearing for a while now is the M1 Motorway, which you are nearing. Cross the stile and continue ahead. Go through the double gates to the main road.

16. (Route change from the original leaflet, as the previous route no longer exists)

Pass beside the red metal barrier and turn right along the farm road. Pass what was the farm on the left. Just before the hedge on the right turn right and walk along the field edge with the ditch and hedge on the left.

17. Turn left over the footbridge and follow the path across the field to Salcey Forest.

(To get to the car park ignore the bridleway on the right and continue straight on, following the Midshires Way and Swans Way signs. At the Forest Track take the right fork, which eventually leads past the red barrier into the car park).

18. Cross the footbridge and immediately turn right along the bridleway. Ignore the public bridleway on the right and the track to the left and keep to the bridleway straight ahead.

19. Leave the Forest by the bridleway and blue circular walk signs and continue along the left edge of the field, with the ditch on the left. Pass under the power cables.

20. At the waymark post, at the crossroads of paths, turn right across the field to the gap in the hedge and waymark post, to the left of the large tree. permanently diverted, as of 7th November 2018, and does not yet appear on OS maps. However it is clearly waymarked. Turn right along the field edge for approximately 20 metres, then turn left across the field to towards the spinney. At GR SP834506 turn left alongside the spinney on the right. Cross the railway sleeper bridge at GR SP838509 and according to the Diversion Order bear right for approximately 25 metres, then bear left for 33 metres and then bear left again for 31 metres. However, it seems that the actual route is across the railway sleeper bridge and straight on up the hill, alongside the spinney on the right, for approximately 317 metres to GR SP841511. This is the end of the diversion.

26. Go through the gap in the Spinney to the waymark post. If you look diagonally right (south) you will get a sighting of the Snowdome in Central Milton Keynes, a constant landmark for much of the walk. To the left of it, in the distance you can see the Brickhills and the mast. Just past the telegraph pole, at the waymark sign and gate, turn left along the field edge with the fence on the left.
