Despite the mud and rain, I hope that everyone "enjoyed" their day walking or running in the Chiltern Hills. Thank you all for participating in the event and for making the best of the bad conditions. Thank you also to all helpers, especially those manning the checkpoints and those who helped push cars off "The Lawn".

I look forward to seeing you all again on the next Chiltern Kanter in two years' time, when hopefully the weather will be kinder!
